And what is a "Pooka"? That's a fairy spirit in animal form which is always very large. The Pooka appears here and there, now and then, to this one and that one at his own caprice.

Although rather vague, this definition will have to suffice until Harvey appears in person next week.

THE SIX-FOOT tall rabbit is supported in the cast by Lynn Benson, who plays Harvey's friend and constant companion, Veta Simmons, who fights in vain against this willful Pooka. The Pooka is portrayed by Pat Fresh.

Staff of a not-so-mental institution are Marjane Johnson as Nurse Ruth Kelley, Richard Snow as the burly attendant, Blaine Quarnstrom as the analytical Dr. Sanderson, and Bob Dugay as the bewildered institution director.

Lea Ward is cast as the fairy young Myrtle Simmons; Karen Bremner portrays Miss Johnson; and Cliff Cabanilla is Judge Gaffney, by George.

TICKETS for the performances must be purchased for $3.00 with activity card at the Joseph Smith ticket office beginning Monday.

Performances will be at 8:15 p.m. except Friday evenings when the lights will dim at 8 p.m.

Directed by Morris Green, the two-act play by Mary Chase was produced last summer on campus, and proved so popular that it has been chosen as this season's first theater production. With a few exceptions, the cast will be the same as in last August's production.

A "Pooka" by the name of Harvey will be featured in BYU's first arena theater production to be presented Oct. 5 through 13. The arena theater is at C-34, Swoot Bldg.

And what is a "Pooka"? That's a fairy spirit in animal form which is always very large. The Pooka appears here and there, now and then, to this one and that one at his own caprice.

BY SHEILA CARTER

During the first meeting of the Senate Monday evening, the following appointments were ratified by the Senate. Even though all of the Senators were not present, there were enough to make the necessary quorum in order to ratify the appointments presented by Dave Stone.

Doyle Sely and Merv White were appointed as Executive Assistants, and Marie Karcher as Executive Secretary. Appointments to the cabinet included Anna Marie Nielson as Student Participation Chairman, Beverly McKnight as Elections Chairman, and Scott Bergeson as Chief Justice.

Bicycle riders must register their bikes with Security in B-66 Swoot Administration Bldg. and purchase licenses in the Provo City Bldg. Violator's Bureau to avoid penalties and protect their bicycles.

The Provo licenses, which are necessary under city ordinance, are available for $1 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays in the city building, on Center St. between University Ave. and 1st East St. Bicycles without licenses will receive a $2.50 ticket.

Students should take their bicycles or the description and serial number to the Violator's Bureau to register.

City officials are watching for students riding bicycles on the sidewalks of the business district. A fine of $2.50 is charged for the first violation.

This concluded the business of the evening.

for the final and official registration figure for fall semester is to be announced Oct. 12, according to Dale Nelson, director of registration. In comparing this with the past 12 years of growth, it is estimated that the enrollment figure for spring 1963 added to the fall semester will push this figure higher than any in the history of the university.

SINCE 1950-51, enrollment has more than doubled. According to figures from the office of L. H. Campbell, director of institutional registration, there were 5,426 day students that academic year. This does not include summer school enrollment.

Enrollment figures during the years between 1950 and this fall show a steady progress upward.

In 1951-52 there were 5,957 students enrolled. There were 7,469 in 1952-53, 8,713 in 1953-54, 10,246 in 1954-55 and a total of 9,466 during 1955-56.

DURING THE 1956-57 school year the figure rose to 10,542. In 1957-58 it was 10,827, in 1958-59 there were 11,427 students on campus and in 1959-60 the enrollment totaled 11,744. Students on campus in 1960-61 numbered 11,555 and while the figure for 1961-62 was 12,423.

Fresh Candidates Must Pass Exam

Nominees for Freshmen class offices must pass a test on the Studentbody Constitution before their nomination becomes official, announced Beverly McKnight, Elections Chairman.

This test will be administered by Elections Committee member Bob Dabron, on Oct. 4, 5 and 6 from 5-7 p.m. in 1125 Smith Family Living Center.

Students may take it any number of times. The results of each test will be posted on the Elections Bulletin Board outside the IOC Office, 180 Student Service Center.

Honor Council Promises Guidance to Students

The Honor Council is not a policing body, but a helping agency. However if an offender refuses help, the council may recommend that he be expelled, according to Gordon Thompson, vice-chairman in charge of case work.

"OUR FIRST EFFORT is to get to the bottom of the problem and help them. We will retain this attitude as long as students accept it," he said.

Under the BYU honor code, each student is to maintain his own honesty in exams and daily work, and help others to do the same. When submitting work not entirely his own, he should be sure to give proper acknowledgement of assistance or borrowing.

BYU students should be sure to not only avoid dishonesty, but to avoid any appearance of being dishonest, he said.

rennen Returns to Show He Didn't Want to Do

(UPI)—Walter Brennan, stymied in attempts to quit CBS-TV's "The Real McCoys," is back for his sixth year on a show he never wanted to do in the first place.

As arm flapping "Grandpa Amos McCoy," Walter is one television's most popular stars. Every place Walter goes, is recognized by autograph seeking fans.

"I didn't want to do this show," said Walter, a three time Emmy award winner. "I didn't want to do television at all, work this hard. I had been in pictures and thought television was too confining."

"But now I'm glad I did it. It's great to be part of a successful project. I meet so many nice people and it's good to get something that will appeal to everybody. That's what we have here."

Brennan has been in all but two of 198 "McCoy" shows filmed and he thought this season would be a good time to leave. Strong pressure in the form of agents and television brass convinced him otherwise. He'll appear 22 of the remaining 39 seasons.

"I made up my mind not to do any more and bought a place 50 miles from here," said Walter, who now has a king size commuting problem.

"A lot of people thought it would be just too good to let Amos go too good a thing to let him go. It gives people something to look forward to and if you're capable of taking them out of their ordinary realm you should do it."

As the show's senior citizen, Brennan is also its storybog, seeing to it that no off-color material gets into scripts.

"There's nothing risqué about the show," he said. "I've had guys come up to me and say they can watch this series with their wife and kids and not be embarrassed by it. Amos is the way it will be as long as I have anything to do about it. I have to watch it with my wife, too."

Walter is also guardian of "Amos McCoy." He won't let any screen writer fool with the old gentleman's lineage.

"Amos is a good character," he explained. "I tell these writers that I know more about him than they do. Amos can't read or write and I don't think you could change him. I couldn't change Amos and I wouldn't let anybody else."

It was character parts like "Amos McCoy" that earned Brennan his reputation as a first rate actor and triple Oscar winner.

"I've had some wonderful parts, more than any character actor in the business," he said. "I don't say I'm better but I've had the opportunities. If a lot of actors had these parts they would have won those awards."

Amidst the atmosphere of construction present on campus, three co-eds model various outfits that would be appropriate for various college activities. Marilyn Brown sports a becoming dark plaid dress which is perfect for school and may also be dressed up with beads and heels. Connie Kent is wearing one of the popular print sweaters in an outfit that can be worn to church or on dates. A lovely print dress can be worn for less formal evening wear as shown by Brenda Foster.

Skelton Honors Nixon

Red Skelton will appear at a dinner honoring Richard Nixon and Dwight D. Eisenhower at the Hollywood Palladium Oct. 8. Edie Adams, Carol London, Jo Ann Kelly and Bob Hope in "Gold Me Brown."

The first series of her new monthly television series will be aired over ABC Oct. 23. Janis Paige costars with Fred Astaire in a segment of his television series.

LA Dodgers Even Series; Pennant Decided Today

by Bud Tolman
Assoc. Sports Editor

Yesterday the entire National League season boiled down to one single sudden-death playoff game between the Dodgers and the Giants largely because of little Maury Wills.

With the score tied at 7-7 in the bottom of the 9th, Wills led off for the Dodgers. After taking 2 strikes and fouling off 2 pitches, he drew a walk off Giant pitcher Bob Bolin. That set the stage for his bashing feat.

GIANT MANAGER Al Dark brought in left-handed pitcher Dick LeMay in an effort to keep Wills close to 1st. It didn't in the least.

With the crowd shouting go-ahead and Wills decimal off, LeMay became so unsettled that he walked Gilliam. This deprived Wills of his 102nd stolen base but nevertheless put him on second, in scoring position.

DARYL SPENCER, pinch-hitting for Duke Snider, grounded out but Wills went to third.

With Wills on third and Tommy Davis batting, Dark brought in Mike McCormick to walk Davis.

Wills brought up his bonus, by Ron Fairly and every cent of that $90,000 was paid back. He lofted a fly to centerfield and Wills scooted home after the catch. Wills Mays made a good effort to stop him but his throw was a little wide.

The entire game was a long, wild effort. The Dodgers had to come out of the dugout twice to fire some of their victims. They were down 5-0 in the 6th before they broke a 35 scoreless inning drought. They really broke it big though, with 7 runs in their half of the 7th.

THE GIANTS came back and tied it up 7-7 in the 8th and Dodger stadium was merely a hull before the storm. Wills led off in the Dodger's 9th and the rest is history.

The game set at least 2 records. It lasted a total of 4 hours 18 minutes, eclipsing the old mark by 10 minutes. The 8 pitchers that the Giants used is a record also. A total of 13 pitchers were used, a total of 2 clubs.

THE STAGE is now set for today's deciding game in Los Angeles, and it should be a thriller. Only 25,321 fans assembled to see this one, but there will undoubtedly be a packed house for the game today.

There are only two possible choices for today's game for either club as to their pitchers. The choice is between southpaw Johnny Podres and the Giants Huan Marcial. Most of the remainder of the staff of both clubs are tired from a grueling winning streak and now from this winning streak.

Either club will have a tough time against the Yankees as the Yankees are the best team in the league this playoffs. It will be either one of two tired clubs against a well-rested and perhaps a hungry Yankee club.

BISHOPS OF ACTIVITY Counselors of the wards listed below should be: Jay Naylor, Intermediate Director not later than 3:00 p.m., October 4th, this Thursday.

The Wards are 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 10th, 12th, 13th, 18th, 19th, 21st, 23rd, 24th, 27th, 31st, 33rd, 36th and 37th.

TOUGH TACKLE—Val Weening who plays football as hard as any Cougar, makes a real impression on opponents as a tackler and blocker.

Cougar Tackle Weening Chosen Top Lineman

by Kim I. Brewster
University Sports Editor

Given the nod as the outstanding lineman of the week is Val Weening, the Cougar weak side tackle who stood out like a sore thumb in Saturday night's heart-breaking loss to the Georgia Washington Colonials.

VAL, WHO WENT both ways for the Mitchell led Cat team was an exacting and effective offensive blocker and a tiger on defense. Repeatedly he stopped the eastern ball carriers in their tracks, and knifed through to score the Colonals for substantial "long" gains.

Weening calls Ogden, Utah his home, making both starting tackles, he and Devon Stone, products of that northern Utah city. Val, however, played his prep ball in Boise, Idaho, where he was chosen an All-Congress high school gridiron griddler.

ALTHOUGH the big tackle concentrates on football duties at the Y, he is a high school star in both basketball and track besides. He still dabbles in both as an intramural competitor when time permits.

Weening, a senior, stands 6'2" and tips the scales at 210 to give him the edge in both football and track besides. As a returning regular from last fall's squad Val also adds experience to his credits. His ability to play the offensive line is greatly needed because of the lack of depth on this season's gridiron squad.

E. Fortie Posts New Records

Eldon Fortie, dubbed "The Phantom," is breaking records every time he dons the blue and white. With the season only three games old, Fortie has broken three school records and set three Western Athletic Conference records.

Named records that are fast established are: most yards rushing (one game): 272 yards against George Washington; most yards total offense (one game): 313 yards against Arizona; rushing average (one game): 10.3 yards - 272 yards; 20 yards against George Washington University.

AT THIS POINT of the season Fortie is only 75 yards short of his total performance for the 1961 campaign. Barring injuries he should again lead the conference in total offense and probably set a new record for a single season's performance.

This Friday, Fortie and company face off for Fort Collins, Colo. to face the Rams. Rams' Ed Goss will be depending on "The Phantom" to spearhead their offensive attack and add to his already impressive total offense of 769 yards.

ON THE STRENGTH of the Cougars' strong showing in the past two games, plus the Rams' 18-game losing streak, the Mitchellmen should be favored.

Ohio State Heads Poll

Ohio State was picked as 1. No. 1 football team in America this week in ratings by a Union Press International board of football coaches.

The Buckeyes picked up 20 first place votes and a total of 70 points as compared to runner-up Alabama's 12 firsts and 287 total points.

ALABAMA, who last year edged out Ohio State for the national title by a scant seven points, was an easy No. 2 this year, with 13 firsts and 201 total points.

The only Western Athletic Conference team who received no points were Utah State and New Mexico with four and two points respectively.

THE TOP TEN teams, their first place votes, their total points, and their won-loss records are as follows:

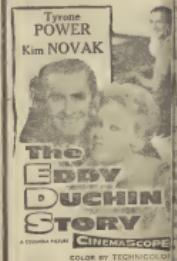

1. Ohio State (20) (315)
2. Alabama (12) (287)
3. Texas (1) (235)
4. Penn State (0) (202)
5. Georgia Tech (1) (133)
6. Southern Cal (0) (104)
7. Mississippi (0) (87)
8. Washington (0) (74) (10)
9. Army (0) (71)
10. Miami, Fla. (0) (58)

The second ten teams were Arkansas; 12; Iowa; 13; Notre Dame; 14; Purdue; 15; Louisiana State; 16; Nebraska; 17; (tie) Wisconsin and Northwestern; Georgia; 20; (tie) Missouri; a Minnesota.
